ARST 43702 B.F.A. Seminar

BFA Core

01 Austin Collins 6:30-8:00 PM T/R Riley 200

BFA majors.

This course is designed to broaden the context of the student's chosen major in the department by introducing the student to alternative and integrated points of view from all areas of study that are represented by the studio and design field. This course will help first semester senior BFA majors to orient toward their chosen direction and project for the BFA thesis. Critical writing and directed readings will be assigned throughout the semester. Slide lectures, visiting artist interviews, gallery visits, student presentations, portfolio preparation and graduate school application procedures will supplement the course. 3 credits

ARST 47X71/67X71 Special Studies

Permission required. Independent study in art studio: research or creative projects. Open to upper level/graduate students with permission of the instructor.

ARST 48X03 BFA Thesis

BFA majors. Prerequisite: B.F.A. Candidacy.

The B.F.A. Thesis is defined by an independent thesis project, continuing for two semesters during the senior year. The B.F.A. Thesis is a personal visual statement that is the culmination of a student's collective development within the department. The B.F.A. Thesis can be the extension of an ongoing body of work or a defining project. The thesis project is supported by a written statement defining the project, which is due at the end of the first senior semester. The thesis project culminates in the second senior semester with a B.F.A. Thesis Exhibition. The B.F.A. Thesis student signs up with a faculty member working in the student's area of interest, who serves as an advisor for the thesis project.
